The loom of our lives

Foreword

"Children of Yesterday

Heirs of Tomorrow

What are you Weaving?"

Patterns of our way of life—woven on the loom of yesterday and today with a glance toward tomorrow. The warp of the loom is knowledge and the woof activities. These patterns are varied by the gray of serious thought; the red of joyous laughter; and by the pure white of hope and faith.

Like sunshine motling the floor of the forest with gay dancing shadows or reflecting in the raindrops its irridescent gold, the patterns of the teenager touch all with challenge, mystery, and light.

Come, follow us through the intricacies of youth, for they reveal our patterns, as we live, love, and laugh.

Dear Fred,

Oh! the many things we've lived through! I don't think I've ever broken anyone as much as I have you. But you know I don't mean it. Truthfully, you're the most wonderful senior in the world. I never thought anyone could be as nice as you have always been to me. Thank you for letting me play curls so ~~many~~ times. We really have had fun together (the 3 of us) haven't we? I'm looking forward to an even better time this summer. Fred, I wish you all the good luck and success in the world. I know your achievements will be many.

good luck,
Love
Jane

Dedication

"We weave with colors all our own and in the field of destiny we reap as we have sown."

The harvest of those that follow can be an abundant one. They, looking back upon our patterns, will discern both good and ill and then weave a better, a stronger, and more lasting design of their own.

So to you, students of the future, we dedicate the 1956 John Quill.

The future beckons!

Principal's Message

To design a pattern of life takes a lot of doing. It began with each of you a long time ago. At first the design was a simple one but now it has become very complex. To weave a pattern as we go along makes you like Topsy in Uncle Tom's Cabin. But to weave a pattern that is bright and true in color and in symmetry, calls for the best you can give. Only by broadening your knowledge, perfecting your skills and creating right attitudes can the pattern of life you fashion become one with a worthy design.

Advisers

During the past four years, our patterns of Education have taken on new shapes, have shown clearer outlines, and have developed fuller designs for living.

To effect these changes in a normal way, we have had the guidance of our advisers and counselors.

The English Department this year devoted itself to the teaching of old and new techniques. Since English is the basic learning of all subjects, this department aimed to teach the student to understand the language; to speak it clearly; to write effectively; and to enjoy it.

The love of literature was encouraged by the use of fine novels, plays and poetry, movies, and fine recordings.

Social Studies

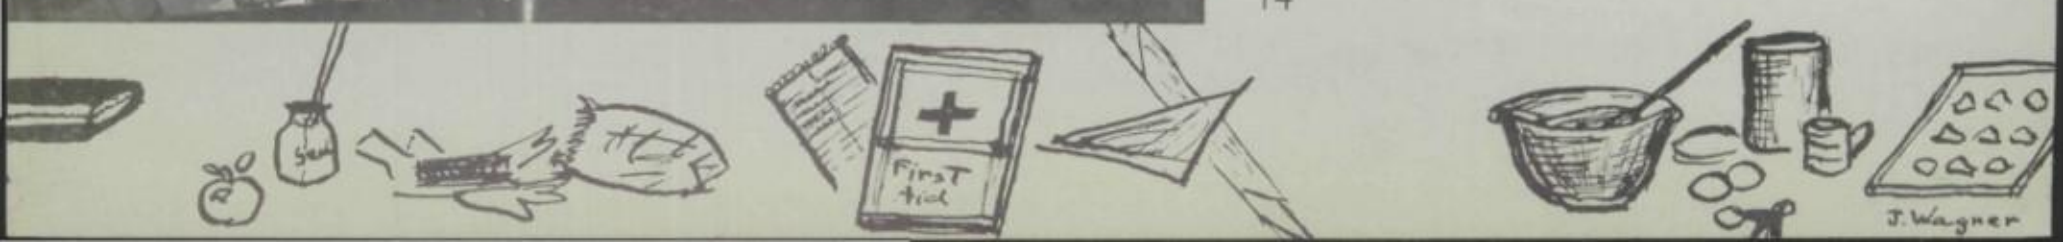
The teaching of good citizenship and of the democratic way of life were two of the chief aims of the Social Studies Department. The many other vital functions included the development of the importance of geography, and the study of history, government, and economics. These courses aided today's students, who are actually the backbone and future of our American democracy, to prepare for the future.

Science

In the Science Department, the faculty, under the direction of Mr. Houseman planned to promote a better understanding of the forces of Nature and of their control and use by man.

A science aptitude test was given to all eighth and ninth grade pupils to discover special aptitudes in the biological, physical, and earth sciences as well as to discover special observation and reasoning skills.

The Science Department had an enrollment of eight hundred ninety pupils.



Languages

This year, the Language Department fostered two new courses, fourth year Latin and third year French. These courses were offered in addition to the accustomed three years of Spanish.

Emphasis in all classes was, as usual, placed upon comprehension and culture—backgrounds for intelligent study.

Mathematics

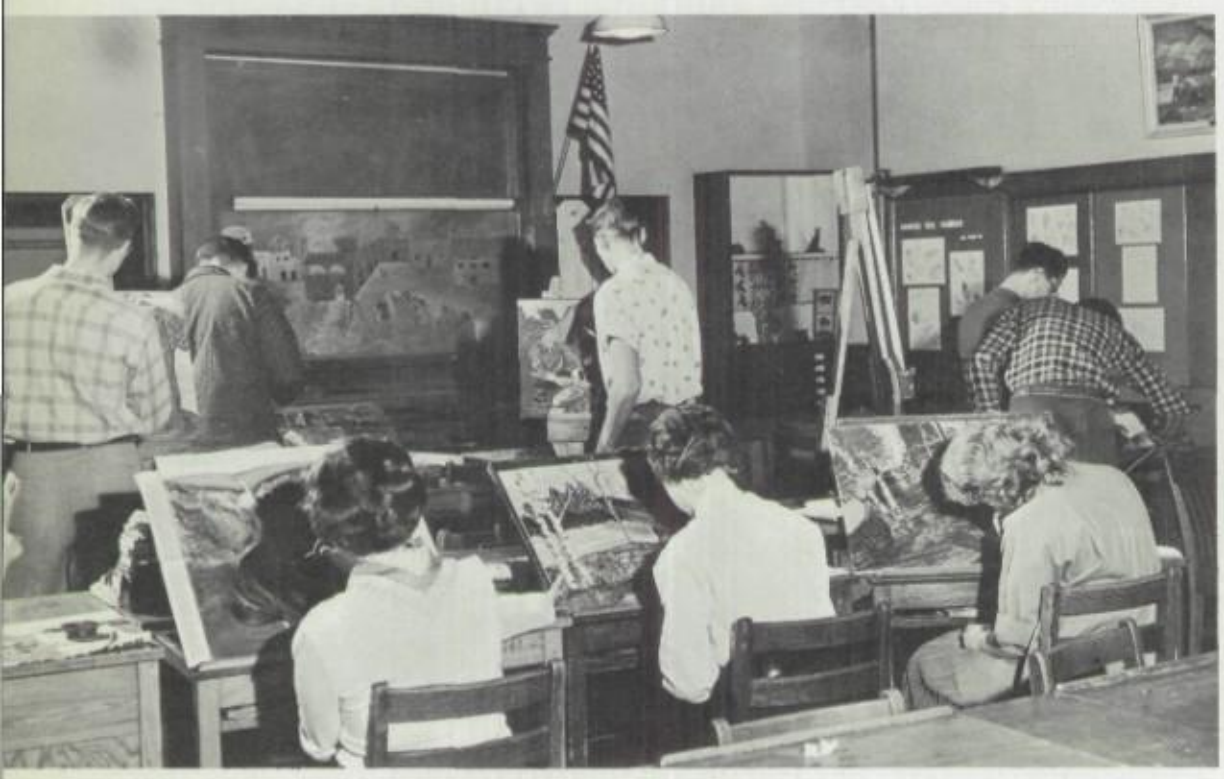
A variety of math courses was offered to the students of John Marshall this past year. Among these courses were eighth grade math, elementary, intermediate, and advanced algebra, plane and solid geometry, trigonometry, and the new math refresher course, which was introduced to the seniors last fall. The math department was composed of eight teachers including Mr. Pflaum, head of the department.

Joseph H. Conway

Business

The Business Department offered to pupils sundry vocational subjects. It provided them with enough knowledge to secure positions as typists, stenographers, secretaries; junior bookkeepers, clerks, and retail salesmen. The one subject offered that was not vocational, was Typewriting Special. This course was offered to give college preparatory students an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of the typewriter.

Home Economics



Art

Voice

Practical Arts

The Practical Arts Department offered classes that instructed and helped students in solving problems found in later life. The various courses offered in this department were home economics, woodworking, metals, craft, and mechanical drawing. These courses required the use and knowledge of many machines.

Home economics taught the students cooking and sewing. It also stressed the duties and responsibilities of homelife.

The shop classes instructed many students, some of whom planned to enter various phases of industry.

Fine Arts

Pupils in the Art Department strive to express themselves by their various paintings, drawings, designs, and 3D constructions. Paint, colored pencils, clay, paper, and many other materials were employed as media. The originality and meaning of the students' ideas were stressed. Much fine work was contributed to the Scholastic Art Exhibit and various other contests by Marshall pupils.

A. Barrow, B. Lockwood, D. Howard.

Guardians of the Flag

Row 1: D. Fisher, J. Ferner, T. Davis, K. King, B. Lockwood. Row 2: T. Saltsman, D. Howard, A. Barrow.

Scholarship Commission

Again this year the top eight members of the senior class formed a group known as the Scholarship Commission. Each member was designated a particular duty. Under the direction of Mr. Friel, these seniors kept fellow class members informed as to college scholarships, supervised report card rating, and in general helped to maintain a high standard of scholarship in John Marshall.

Executive Council

Serving as the ruling branch of our student government, the Executive Council consisted of sixteen members. The council tried to promote a better and a safer school as well as to arrange Marshall's social events. With seven activities commissioners, five grade representatives, and the four Students' Association officers as members, the Executive Council planned the Dungaree Frolics, The Snowball, and carried on successful drives for various funds.

National Honor Society

Students at John Marshall High School who had achieved excellence in scholarship, leadership, character, and service to their school were rewarded with membership in the National Honor Society. Twenty-four members of the senior class were elected this year to take their places beside seven members chosen last spring. At a reception held in January, the members elected David Fisher, president; Fred Stegeman, vice-president; and Jane Ferner, secretary. Mrs. Barden acted as faculty adviser for the group.

Standing: L. Jolidon, N. Edgett, J. Moss, D. Fisher, C. Perry, F. Conte, S. Saltsman, F. Stegeman, P. Kron, M. Thorne, W. Statt, T. Davis, G. Van Orden, L. Vallone, D. Howard. Seated in front: J. Row 2: F. Erdle, B. Merritt, D. Huttenbach.

This year the legislative body was headed by the vice-president of the Students' Association, Donald Haefele. Each homeroom was represented in this branch of the school government by a representative or an alternate who were elected from the homerooms. Meetings were held once every two months for the purpose of making plans, recommendations, or laws. Some of the drives were membership campaigns, the Memorial Scholarship Fund, the March of Dimes, and the John Quill sales. They were also responsiblé for other school activities that came up during the course of the year. The minutes and attendance records were kept by Margie Higbee, the secretary of the Students' Association. Miss Turula and Mr. Goetz were the adult advisors who attended the meetings and added their suggestions when needed.

Banking Clerks

The habit of thrift was encouraged by homeroom banking every Monday morning. The homeroom banking clerks collected money from students who had learned the value of regular saving. The ten tellers in the school banking office with the aid of Mr. Pflaum, faculty adviser, received the money from the 45 homeroom banking clerks and prepared the money to send it to the bank. This year the students banked several thousand dollars.

Rating Clerks

After each report card period, a staff of people took charge of all rating duties for their individual homerooms. Known as rating clerks, these students computed the median and determined the five highest ranking members of their homerooms. Once completed, the ratings were sent to the rating commission, which, under the direction of Mrs. Olmstead, double checked all blanks for accuracy and then presented a list of the five highest people from each homeroom to be displayed on the Honor Roll in the main hall.

Traffic Squad

Under the leadership of Mr. Gerace, the Traffic Squad, stationed at strategic points along Ridgeway Avenue, Primrose and Avis Streets, guarded the safety of John Marshall's fourteen-hundred students. They were organized in pairs with Dave Howard, Captain and Marc Thorne, Lieutenant.

Service Corps

Under the direction of Mr. Zeman, the Service Corps which consisted of juniors and seniors were on duty this year in their bright new orange and blue jackets, before school, during the lunch hour, and at basketball games. Their duties included patrolling the halls and doorways, maintaining order in the lunchroom, and directing traffic in general within the building.

Dramatics

Students of the dramatic class, under the leadership of Miss Bitz, gained knowledge in the arts of pantomime, speech, voice, makeup, characterization, and other phases of play production. In addition to the experience gained through classroom productions and monologues, the Marshall thespians put their training to practical use by highly successful productions of "Jinxed", "Our Miss Brooks" and the "Christmas Carol", and other plays and sketches.

Radio Workshop

"Going places and doing things" was the theme for the radio workshop this year as they presided over Marshall's "Monitor". Aside from their regular programs, workshoppers produced dramatizations for the English classes and gave short announcements during homeroom period.

Through this class, valuable experience was gained in producing, writing, and acting out radio scripts.

Aiding Mrs. Saunders, Director, this year were Bruce Clark, Station Manager; Gary Niedermeier, Assistant Station Manager; Larry Jolidon, Program Director; and Sally Lund, Secretary.

Senior Choir

Ninety-three members of the Senior Choir consisting of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students, met five times a week with their director, Harold Singleton, and accompanist, Mrs. Laura Remington.

The Choristers presented inspirational Thanksgiving and Easter programs, sang at the Civic Orchestra Concert, recorded "A Joyous Christmas" by Geveart, which was played during the Christmas season on WHAM radio, and appeared in several assemblies.

Officers were David Bane, President; David Heiligman, Vice-President-Treasurer; Carol Martin, Secretary; and Barbara Smith, Wardrobe Mistress.

Senior Orchestra

The Senior Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Roy Thrall, completed an interesting year by playing at the Senior Play, at graduation, in grade schools, at the Spring Concert, and for the first time at an Orchestra Assembly.

They also performed at the State Festival, where solos, quartets, and ensembles—all played competitively with other school orchestras in Western New York.

The officers for this year were Sally Moulton, President; David Pool, Vice-President; Marcia Waugh, Secretary; and Donald Mansfield, Librarian.

A tapestry of sweet sound

Senior Band

1955-1956 was a busy year for the John Marshall Senior Band and their conductor Mr. Thrall. The band represented Marshall in the Highland Park Festival, and various concerts at Marshall and around the county. Two band members, Jerry Rhodes, and Philip Macone were chosen for the All-State Band, and twenty others played in the Sectional All-State Band.

Junior Band

Under the batons of Mr. Thrall's student conductor, Dick Misel, and assistant student conductors, James Walker and Paul Morton, the Junior Band proved their capability. They participated successfully in state competition at Rush-Henrietta this spring, played in Marshall's annual spring concert, and performed in several assemblies. This experience plus their spirit of co-operation encouraged the prospect of fine Senior Bands in the future.

The officers were President, Dave Crawford; Vice-President, Sabra Ballerstein; and Librarian, Ray Short.

Junior Orchestra

Under the direction of Mr. Roy Thrall, the Junior Orchestra completed its first year of concert music at John Marshall. The members worked hard to prove that they were prepared for their ultimate goal — Senior Orchestra.

Music by this group provided interesting listening for students, teachers, friends, and parents at the Spring Concert.

Officers elected for this year were as follows: Diane Higgins, President; Sabra Ballerstein, Vice-President; Alan Cullen, Secretary; and Ann Emerson, Librarian.

GIRLS'

Girls at Marshall turned out in large numbers for the 1955-1956 season of after-school sports under the leadership of Miss Miller, Miss Forgie, and Miss O'Connor.

A varied sports schedule this year included stunts, bowling, dancing, basketball, volleyball, swimming, badminton, soccer, ping-pong, tennis, and baseball.

The girls also formed teams which competed against other city schools in volleyball, basketball, swimming, and soccer play days.

By regular attendance at these clubs, girls earned credits toward their letters in sports. They also made new friends and developed a sense of team-play and cooperation.

The Football Team

Coach Davis, P. Argento

This year, Marshall's contribution to the football field was the best one ever to grace our school's history. Led by All-Scholastic Phil Argento at quarterback and Gary Niedermeier at end, the Jurists won five out of six league contests, and finished in a three way tie for first place with Edison and Jefferson. In the play-offs, Jefferson's powerful Statesmen closed out our team and shared the Co-Championship with Edison.

Frank Conte was voted lineman-of-the-year and Phil Argento received back-of-the-year award in the annual team voting.

The Soccer Team

The Marshall soccer team, under the guiding hand of Coach Gerace, had a good season and wound up in third place in the city competition. They managed to bring home 7 wins, 2 losses, and 2 ties.

In the Sectionals, the booters pulled a big surprise when they upset Wayne Central. The Jurists then defeated Madison and moved into the game with East. This contest was battled to a 0-0 tie. After two overtimes, it was decided that Marshall and East would share the Sectional crown.

Eric Reynolds, who learned his soccer in England, made All-Scholastic first team. Other excellent players making All-Scholastic teams were Phil Kron, Loyal Van Dyke, Norm Edgett, Ed Frearson, Wayne Statt, and Ron Giebel.

Basketball

The 1955-1956 edition of the John Marshall basketball team again upheld the traditions of exciting play and good sportsmanship in all of their Inter-scholastic League tilts.

Led by the high scoring and consistently fine performances of Alan Bierworth and Gary Niedermeier, the starting five was rounded out by Phil Kron, Al Maccallini and Phil Argento.

Highlights of the season were a second half defeat of Charlotte after they had squeaked by the Jurists in an earlier meeting, and the Marshall-East game where the hoopsters led at the half but later bowed in defeat to the sharp-shooting Orientals.

Tennis

In Interscholastic League competition, the 1955 John Marshall tennis team, under the guidance of their coach, Mr. Wright, achieved a record of two wins, two losses, and played to a draw in an incompleted match with Monroe.

Team members John Miller, Wayne Statt, and Tom Saltsman played singles, while Jim Chittenden and Art Schaertel teamed up for doubles.

Cross Country

By virtue of a record of three wins and one loss in Interscholastic League competition, the cross country team finished in a tie for second place.

The team, coached by Mr. Wren, a newcomer to the Marshall coaching scene, was led by the outstanding running of Ron Hauck.

In the sectional meet, Hauck finished seventh in a field of over 100, and the team as a whole, finished in a tie for third place.

Other runners on the team included Chuck Wenzel, Ron Carroll, Dave Jacox, Mike Walsh, Pete Crellin, and Dave Crellin.

Bowling

The Jurist Bowling team placed fifth in the city this year. The Keglers beat teams from Franklin, Madison, and East, but bowed to Jefferson and Edison. The team was composed of two squads. On the first squad were Captain Gary Kemp, Louis DiPonzio, George Brown, David Buckly, and Ronald Hauck.

Swimming

Under the capable guidance of Coach Gerace, the swimming team gained a record of three wins and one loss in Interscholastic League competition.

The team relied mainly on Fred Stegeman in the 100 yard backstroke and the 150 yard individual medley; and the two divers, Dick Mayfield and Dave Ralston as point-getters.

Led by co-captains, Fred Stegeman and Chuck Perry, the team was aided by Dan Hamill, Mike Miles, Tom Davis, and Mike Reilly.

Wrestling

Coach Davis's highly successful wrestling team had its best season in Marshall's history.

Led by veterans Frank Conte, Don Haefele, and Al Wheeler, the grunt and groaners managed to drop many of their opponents by wide margins.

The highlight of the season was the Edison meet. In that contest, the Marshall squad pinned Tech 45-0. This marked the first shut-out game in the history of high school wrestling in Rochester.

Track Team

The 1955 John Marshall track team completed the season with a record of seven wins and two losses. This earned the Jurist cindermen third place in city standings.

Two boys who did outstanding work during the season were Bill Hicks, who broke a broad jump record of 21' 3" by leaping 21' 11¾", and Mike Walsh, one of four sprinters in a record breaking mile relay team.

Baseball

The Jurists of the diamond started out fast but slacked off as the season progressed. Led by the power hitting of Chuck Weaver, and the fine fielding of Phil Argento, the Marshall nine looked like a championship team in the first few games. At this time, however, star pitcher Floyd Grimes became afflicted with back trouble just as he was heading toward a new city strike-out record.

Phil Argento and Chuck Weaver placed All-Scholastic and helped the team to place second in the city competition. Team spirit and good sportsmanship coupled with Mr. Bushnell's fine coaching kept Marshall's name high on the list of contenders throughout the entire season.

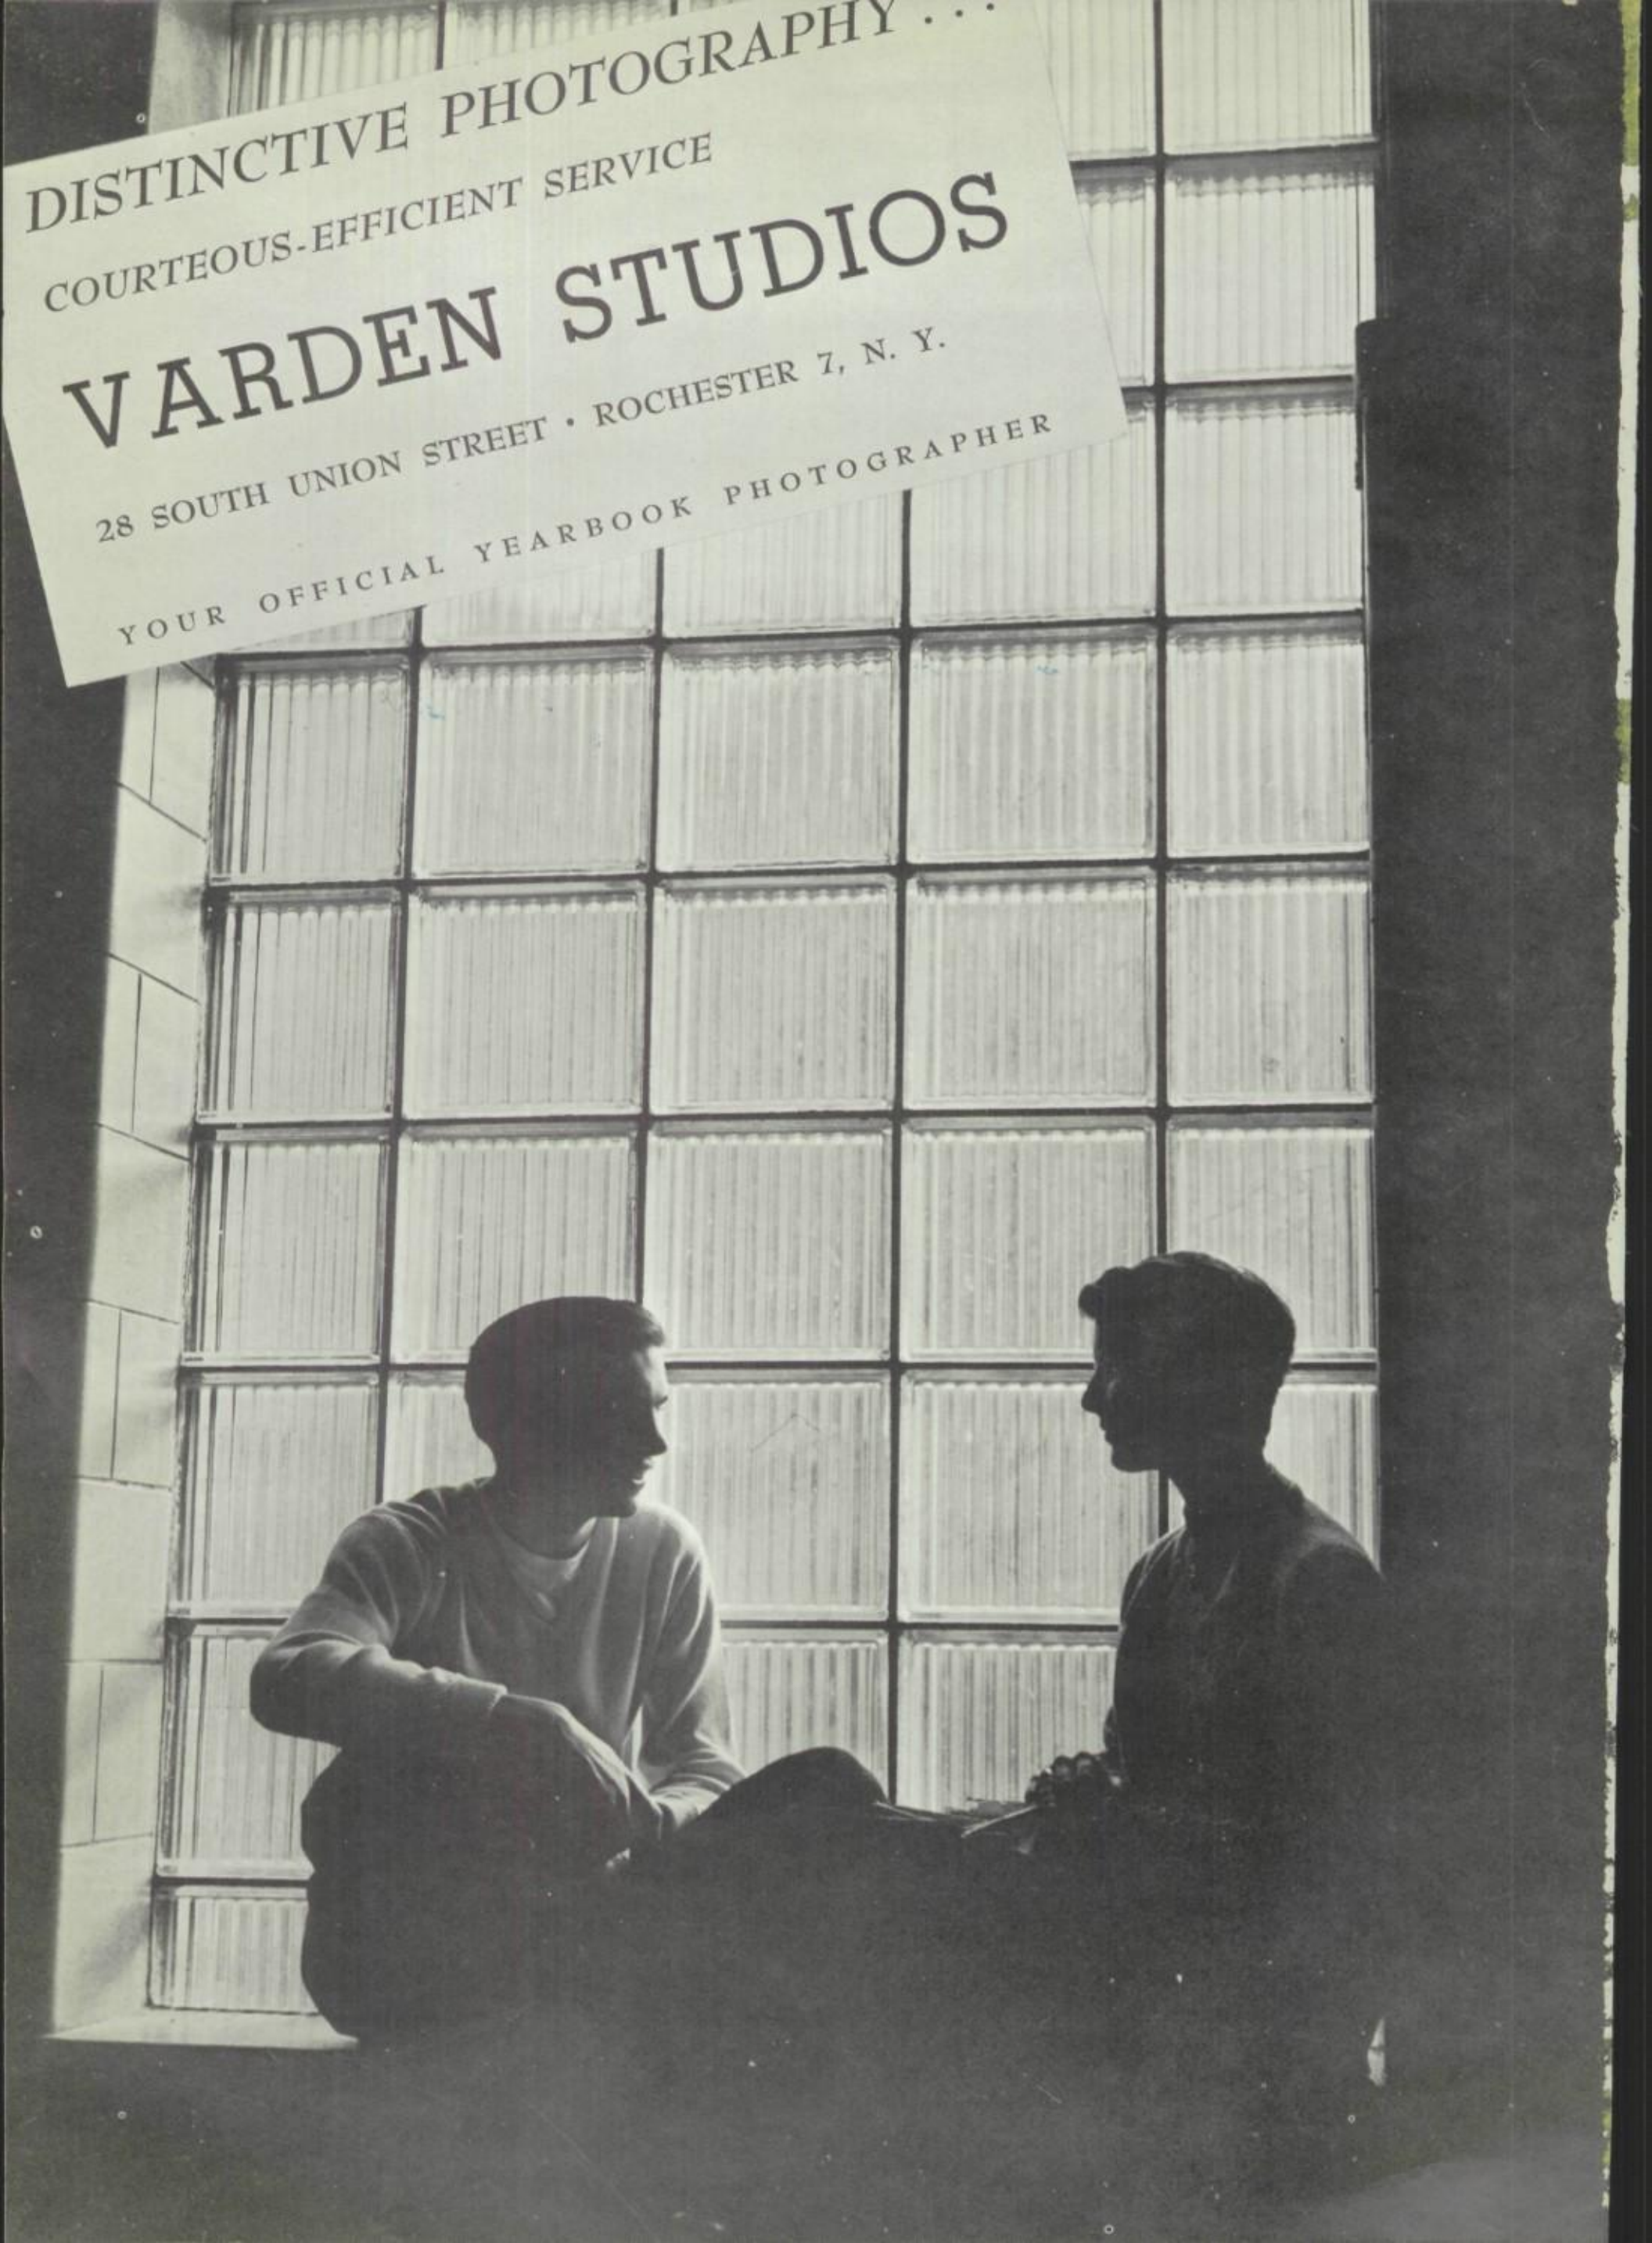
YOUR OFFICIAL YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHER



To Fred:

Over the past four years it has been a pleasure watching you grow, both as a student and a man. You have the very stuff of success, let nothing deter you from your goal. Set your sights high and go — !

My very best wishes to you - you will never be forgotten!

Lacy S. Threet

Fred,

It's been wonderful knowing as nice a person as you & I wish you every success in the future, in everthing you do. You and Barrie make a perfect couple & I wish you luck together

Loads of good wishes,

Kathy La Sar

ΔΔΠ

Fred -

My Junior year has been that much more pleasant - 'cause I got to know someone as nice as you are. Thanx loads for ever treating the lump -

Best of everything

Fondy

ΔΔΠ

Dear Freddie,
Gosh, it's really been fun getting to know you this year! Although you're a lump-breaker, I guess you're O.K.! Best of luck!

Gail

Fred:
Well, next year you'll be gone from these hallowed halls — and how I envy you. It's been great getting to know you, and fun serving on Marian's committee with you.

Faith
K.E.P.

Dear Fred,
It's been great getting to know you this year. Lots of luck in the future with Barry.

Love,

Fred —
Best of luck always to one real swell guy —
Best wishes
